

THOUGH WE'RE MILES AND MILES APART

Adapted from the
"NO NAME WALTZ"

Lyric by
J. Russel Robinson.

Melody by W. C. Handy and
Chas. N. Hillman

Published by Pace and Handy Music Co. Inc.

1545 Broadway, New York

Though We're Miles And Miles Apart

3

Lyric by
J. RUSSEL ROBINSON

(Adapted from the No Name Waltz)

Melody by
CHAS. N. HILLMAN
& W.C. HANDY

Andante
(tremolo both hands ad lib.)

Presto

L.H. (use soft and loud pedal together)

poco rit.
pp

§

§

Tempo di Valse

p rubato

mp con espress.

Voice (tenderly.)

When my thro'ts go
With the sink - ing

roam - ing
sun, dear,

Home - ward in the gloam - ing,
Dream - ing of the one, dear,

There I sit and dream, dear,
How the tears are fall - ing,

Where the can - dles
When your voice comes gleam, dear, Now the tho't comes steal - ing, call - ing, And a mess - age speed - ing,

Ten - der - ly ap - peal - ing, Tho' the seas di - Dis - tance nev - er heed - ing, To the heart of vide us, loved one,

me seems say - ing,

O'er the deep blue o - cean I send love's de - Tho' you are the dear - est When you are the vo near tion, Ask - ing you to wait, my est, Ab - sence has en - chant ment sweet heart, Some thing seems to too, dear, And I'm glad I cheer me, Tell ing me you hear me, met you, Glad I can't for get you,

Tho' we're miles and miles a part.
 Tho' we're miles and miles a part.

d.m. D.S.