The first system of the hymn consists of four vocal staves (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and a piano accompaniment. Each vocal line begins with the lyrics "-wake a cheer-ful song." and is followed by a double bar line and the word "Sym:" indicating a symphony or instrumental section. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support for the vocal lines.

Good will to sin-ful men is shown, And peace on earth is given;
 Good will to sin-ful men is shown, And peace on earth is given;
 Good will to sin-ful men is shown, And peace on earth is given;
 Good will to sin-ful men is shown, And peace on earth is given;

The second system of the hymn continues with the same four vocal staves and piano accompaniment. The lyrics for all parts are "Good will to sin-ful men is shown, And peace on earth is given;". The piano accompaniment continues to provide harmonic support for the vocal lines.

Let heav'n and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born.

Let heav'n and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born.

and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born.

To us a child is born

This system contains four vocal staves and two piano accompaniment staves. The lyrics are distributed across the vocal staves: the first line is on the top vocal staff, the second line on the second and third vocal staves, and the third line on the fourth vocal staff. The piano accompaniment is shown in grand staff notation.

Let heav'n and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born.

Let heav'n and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born.

Let heav'n and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born.

Let heav'n and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born.

This system contains four vocal staves and two piano accompaniment staves. Each of the four vocal staves has the same line of lyrics: "Let heav'n and earth in con_cert join, To us a child is born." The piano accompaniment continues in grand staff notation.
